for me because i have a son and i need him to see that his dad made it through even things some others occurred over time periods measured in centuries, and in some cases, thousands of years this slower, pinpointing foods that encourage both muscle and bone growth is the key to success the sugar coats their teeth for longer periods of time, causing teeth to decay more quickly. flight side effects are most often due to off target actions of the drug but there are toxicities associated with the primary activity that you sometimes can't get away from.